I'd like to one day open my own apothecary and create generational wealth for my family..

Story: I was born into poverty.. I grew up with hardships no child should ever experience.

I've fought my whole life to receive better than what I was given.. in the hardships of life I've remained kind and gentle.. and that's what's carries me , my genuine kindness and understanding..

Challenges: A child to divorced parents, homelessness, being a teen mom, abusive relationships, and a traumatic divorce of my own.
